

RULE 118 - USED OFF REGULAR ASSIGNMENT

CLAIM DIFFERENCE IN EARNINGS

An engineer taken from his or her regular assignment and used in other service will receive for such service not less than he/she would have earned had he or she remained on his or her assignment. This does not apply to freight engineers called for passenger service.

Claim difference in earnings from what I made for working (board location) (pool) (turn id) that I would have made on my assignment (board location) (pool) (turn id). I was called off of my assignment to work the (train symbol) at (on duty time) going from (location) to (location) and then returning on the (train symbol) at (on duty time) going from (location) to (location). I am entitled to the difference in earnings per rule 118 that I would have made if I had worked my assigned turn.

Remember to document everything that happens on your Federal Tie Up Screen. You have 60 days from the time the claim happened to get it put in but only one chance to do your FRA Reporting correctly. So do the FRA Reporting and ask about the claim if you are not sure.
